Questions 33 – 40 are based on the following text.

Last Sunday, Syafika and her sister were at home. Their parents had gone for a wedding reception. Both of them did not want to go as they wanted to study for the year-end examination.

At about 3.00 p.m. three strangers in uniform stood outside the gate.

“Hello, anybody home?” they shouted.

“We’re here to check your garden for mosquitoes.”

Syafika was very suspicious of strangers. She decided to keep quiet. After a while the men went next door. En. Safiee, the owner of the house was not at home. His new maid was out in the garden alone. Syafika watched from her window but she did not warn the maid as she was afraid. She saw the maid opening the gate to let the men into the garden. However, instead of just checking the garden, she saw them going into the house. The maid went in as well and they did not come out for a long time. Syafika strained her ears to hear what was going on. She thought she heard struggling noises. Without further delay, she telephoned the police.

The police arrived a few minutes later. They surrounded the house and shouted to the men to give up. The men suddenly appeared on the roof, ran to the next house and jumped down. However the police was waiting and they were caught immediately. When they went in, they saw the maid tied up on a chair. After untying her, they rang En. Safiee who came rushing home. Luckily for En. Safiee, whatever money stolen was recovered.

The police praised Syafika for her good judgement and quick action. En. Safiee took Syafika and her sister out for an ice-cream and cinema treat later in the week. He was thankful to have such helpful neighbours.

33 Syafika’s parents were not at home because they were

- A going abroad
- B having a party
- C getting married
- D attending a wedding

34 The phrase came rushing shows that En. Safiee was

- A afraid
- B careful
- C very busy
- D in a hurry

<http://gudangsoalan.blogspot.com>

- 35 The men were let in by the maid because they were
- A government servant
 - B in uniform
 - C handsome
 - D nice
- 36 The robbers tied the maid so that she could not
- A run to get help
 - B clean the house
 - C let the owner in
 - D tell Syafika about them
- 37 The police surrounded the house to make sure that the
- A maid could not escape
 - B maid was in the house
 - C robbers could not escape
 - D robbers were in the house
- 38 The word suspicious can best be replaced with
- A peculiar
 - B suspense
 - C doubtful
 - D uncommon
- 39 The best proverb to describe the burglars is
- A a wolf in a sheep's clothing
 - B birds of a feather flock together
 - C a leopard cannot change its spots
 - D the early bird catches the worm
- 40 We can conclude that En. Safiee was with Syafika's action
- A grateful
 - B annoyed
 - C satisfied
 - D surprised
